

The Historical Society of Bradley Beach is dedicated to the conservation, education and preservation of the history of Bradley Beach, New Jersey, as a coastal resort community.

The Society is also dedicated to educating the public about the Historic contributions to the United States by the residents, visitors and governing bodies of Bradley Beach. The Society is a non-profit organization that wishes to obtain public grants from the New Jersey Historical Commission, New Jersey Cultural Trust and the Monmouth County Historical Commission.

The Historical Society would like to continue with the success of the museum and are seeking volunteers to assist with all aspects of the Society.

If you are interested please contact Kelly Barrett, Municipal Clerk/Administrator at kbarrett@bradleybeachnj.gov or 732-776-2983.
